CALIFORNIA STATE ASSEMBLY
JOB LISTINGS

Office: Assembly Labor and Employment Committee
Classification: Committee Consultant
Posted: 11/09/2017

The Assembly Labor and Employment Committee is seeking a committee consultant. The ideal candidate must be able to work independently as well as part of a staff team with a highly-engaged Chair. The candidate must be an excellent writer and have strong interpersonal communication skills, including a knack for accurately simplifying the complex. They will also have well developed research, analytical and time management skills and have experience with legislative and committee process and labor and employment policy. The position is open until filled and pay is commensurate with experience. Preference given to applications received by Nov. 27th.

Contact: Please submit a resume, cover letter, writing sample and references to Jennifer.Richard@asm.ca.gov